

I Didn't Even Have to Pray

FROM THE CD, "PHOENIX, TENNESSEE"

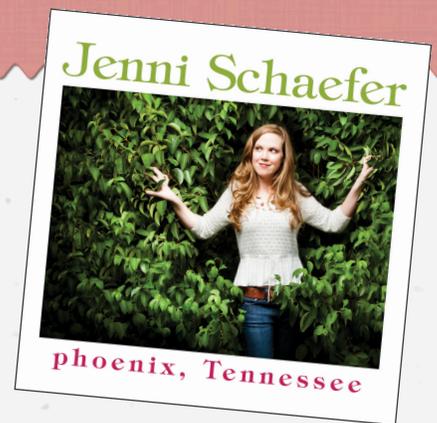

I didn't know I was sitting in flames
I was always so very cold
What began as just a game
Turned into a fight for my soul
Only when I tried to get out
Could I finally feel the pain
I had no doubt I was dying inside
So why did I fight to stay

Chorus:

I got down on my knees
But I didn't ask to be set free
I just couldn't say those words
Cause what if God really heard
So I talked about other things
But he saw me look his way
He sent me a miracle
And I didn't even have to pray
Now I smile and I laugh out loud
And I sing in the car again
I watch the snowflakes fall to the ground
Still feeling the sun on my skin

Every fall is a stepping stone
To the place I'm safe and sound
Fear as fading as my heart finds home
So far from the dark frozen ground (where)

Recorded by Jenni on her debut CD, "Phoenix, Tennessee." Available at JenniSchaefer.com, iTunes, and other online retailers. Written by Jenni Schaefer and Judy Rodman, www.JudyRodman.com. © 2003 Hello Me Music (BMI)/Favorable Wind Songs (BMI).

Chorus:

I got down on my knees
But I didn't ask to be set free
I just couldn't say those words
Cause what if God really heard
So I talked about other things
But he saw me look his way
He sent me a miracle
And I didn't even have to pray

Tag:

He sent me a miracle
Now there are miracles each day

DREAM BIG
TO OVERCOME

WHAT IS YOUR DREAM?

LEARN MORE AT

WWW.JENNISCHAEFER.COM

Jenni Schaefer is a singer/songwriter, speaker, and author of Life Without Ed and Goodbye Ed, Hello Me. She is the co-author of Almost Anorexic (released by Harvard Health Publications and Hazelden). For more information about Jenni's books and music, visit JenniSchaefer.com. Connect with her at Twitter.com/JenniSchaefer, Facebook.com/LifeWithoutEd, and Pinterest.com/JenniSchaeferTX.